

What's the difference?	Registered Homeschooling  A family member delivers the entire educational program to children at home.	Public School Online learning  @KOOL	Independent School Online Learning  Private school (fee paying)
Must follow B.C. curriculum
Learning must be supervised to a B.C. teacher
Students must use district or school-approved resources
Student progress must be evaluated by a teacher following the Ministry of Education Student Progress Report Order
Must participate in provincial testing, (Provincial exams and Foundation Skills Assessments)
Religious texts / resources may be used
Status of student with school	Registered	Enrolled	Enrolled
Meets Ministry of Education Requirements for Dogwood Graduation Certificate	